Additional Information

Medical – Music In The Parks does not provide a medical professional at the performance site. It is suggested that each director have a medical permission form for each student in their group in case emergency treatment becomes necessary. This parental permission form is required by all hospitals to treat a minor when a parent/guardian is not present. Check with your school district administration to be certain you are in compliance with district policy.

Rules

Alcohol and Drug Use – The use of alcoholic beverages and drugs is strictly prohibited.

Smoking – The Legal smoking age is currently 18, and it is illegal to smoke on any public school property. Many states have also issued a smoke-free policy. Students and adults not adhering to the law may be prosecuted by the host school.
